

LIFE AND DEATH AT THE EUROPEAN BORDERS

LECTURE SERIES

May & June, 2021
Mondays 4pm-6pm

Nanterre / Frankfurt Oder / Online. Registration: ifes@europa-uni.de

- May 3
Opening lecture
Living at the Border until Death
Michel Agier (EHESS/IRD-CEMS)
- May 10
The 'Completeness' of the Dead: Practices of Management and Modes of Attachment to Unknown Border Crossers Buried in Catania
Carolina Kobelinsky (CNRS/LESC)
- May 17
Civil Society, International Organizations, and the (De) Politization of Border Deaths' Numbers
Antoine Pécoud (Université de Sorbonne Paris Nord/CERI)
- May 31
Ecologies of Remembrance: Situating the Afterlives of Migrant Dead at Sea in Italy (1997-2019)
Vanessa Grotti (Università di Bologna)
- June 7
Politics of (Un-)Breathing. Policing Blackness in Europe
Vanessa E. Thompson (Europa-Universität Viadrina Frankfurt Oder)
- June 14
Recovering Remnants. The erasure of deceased migrants and the exculpation of responsibility at the Spanish-Moroccan frontier
Gerhild Perl (Universität Bern)
- June 21
Not Crossing Borders: The (Im)mobilities of the Covid-19 Pandemic
Karolina Follis (University of Lancaster)
- June 28
The Place of Others: Weddings, Funerals, and the Work of Dignity in a Tunisian Border Town
Valentina Zagaria (Central European University)
- July 5
Between Life and Death: The Migrant as Ghost over Europe
Estela Schindel (Europa-Universität Viadrina Frankfurt Oder)

Convenors:
Carolina Kobelinsky
Estela Schindel