CALL FOR APPLICATIONS:

INU SUMMER PROGRAM 2019 @ HIROSHIMA UNIVERSITY, JAPAN

Dear students,

We are currently accepting applications for the annual INU Summer Program at Hiroshima University, Japan. This year's program theme is:

“The health of Democracy”

The 2019 INU Summer Program, in its tenth annual iteration, is held each year at Hiroshima University. Students and teaching academic experts from INU universities in Africa, Asia, Australia, Europe, North and South America participate in the course. The course itself involves an intensive series of lectures, workshops, and seminars directed by professors from INU member universities. The program is open to both bachelor and master students from all three faculties of the Viadrina. Master students will need to hand in a 4000-word essay about one of three suggested topics.

2019 Themes:

- 1. the increasing disillusionment with politics and political parties*
- 2. the growth of illiberal politics and the radical right*
- 3. alternative forms of participation in political processes such as social movements, grass root organisations, and the role of social media*
