

Application process

Please apply by using our Online-Portal. You can find our homepage here:

www.europa-uni.de/college

Please follow the instructions. Firstly, you have to register in the portal. After you have registered, you will receive an e-mail with an activation link. Click on the link and enter your password. Now you can apply online.

The application is made via our online portal. Please upload the following documents to the online portal, which will be open from 1 January 2022 to 20 February 2022:

- Complete online application form
- Letter of motivation
- Up to date proof of B1 German language skills (max. 6 months old)
- High school diploma from the home country or interim certificate (if the high school diploma is not available yet)
- Résumé
- Copy of the passport (first page)

After you have completed and sent the online form and uploaded the necessary documents, you will receive your application PDF. You need to print out this document, sign it, scan it and send it by 20 February 2022 (23:59 CET) at the latest in PDF format to college@europa-uni.de

Please note: Without this step, your application is incomplete!

Following the submission of your online application, you need to take the TestAS in your home country.

Following a successful pre-selection process, we will invite you to an interview (e.g. via Zoom) to get to know you better.

If you are considered after the interview, you will be accepted timely to participate in the Viadrina Intensive Track.

From school straight to university

The European University Viadrina, located in Frankfurt (Oder) on the German-Polish border, invites international high school graduates with interest in mathematics and economics to participate in the study preparatory program Viadrina Intensive Track.

The Viadrina Intensive Track enables international high school graduates without formal university entry qualifications in Germany to study Business Administration and Economics (German Bachelor programs International Business Administration or Law and Economics | Economics and Law) at the European University Viadrina after successfully taking part in the study preparatory program.

Participants complete a 12-month preparatory program, which starts in the winter semester 2022/23 and prepares participants with required skills and knowledge.

During the preparatory course, the participants receive additional support from the department Viadrina International Affairs which also assist with integration in Germany.

Application deadline: 20 February 2022

Program structure

After you have been accepted in the program, you will attend a preparatory course from October 2022 with the following content:

- German Course B2 + C1
- Preparatory course for the German Exam to Study in Germany (DSH)
- Preparatory course for Business Administration, Economics and Mathematics
- English language course (if needed)
- Further subject-based, methodological and intercultural preparatory activities
- Seminars and workshops to acquire key qualifications relevant to studies
- Activities to help you arrive and settle in at a German university (e.g. excursions, trips, cultural events)

Application conditions

In order to take part in Viadrina Intensive Track, you need to fulfil the following conditions:

- A school-leaving certificate from the home country
- German language skills at B1 level (e.g. completed DSD I)
- At least 17 years old on 1 October 2023
- Interest in economics and mathematics

Program costs

The costs for participating in the program are covered by the European University Viadrina. This includes the following:

- Language and subject courses
- Tutorials and workshops
- Teaching materials
- Examination fees (fees for retake are excluded)
- Preparatory course for the German examination for university entrance (DSH)
- Cultural events
- Costs for care and support

It is necessary to take out additional private health insurance for the duration of Viadrina Intensive Track. There are also further costs for living expenses and accommodation. If needed, we can assist you in finding a room in a student dormitory.

The following services are self-supporting:

- Residency permit for the duration of the preparatory course
- Semester fee including the semester ticket for Berlin/Brandenburg
