

Graduation Scholarship for the year 2023

For female doctoral students, postdoctoral and habilitation candidates (Förderlinie C und D)

The Europa-Universität Viadrina strives, within the context of its Equality- & Family planning, to support women, specifically during the scientific qualification process.

Following § 33 subparagraph 1 sentence 2 of the Brandenburg Higher Education Act women are to be especially considered in the fostering of junior scientists. The Graduation Scholarship is an instrument of equalization answering to the structural underrepresentation of women. The Scholarship is financed by funding from the federate state Brandenburg. It is designed for doctorates, post-doctoral researcher and habilitation candidates, who are in the final stages of their qualification purposes and whose graduation would be endangered without the funding.

Who can apply:

- Female doctoral students
- Female postdoctoral researcher and
- Female habilitation candidates

Of all disciplines and nationalities whose qualification purpose is looked after by a professor tied to the Viadrina.

Requirements for the application

- A completed academic education/degree or a completed doctoral degree
- Outstanding achievements in their field of work and
- A written assurance concerning the doctorate advise (Betreuungszusage) by a professor tied to the Viadrina

Appropriation period

1-6 months from April to December 2023

Amount of Scholarship:

1.350 Euro per month for graduates

1.650 Euro per months for post-doctorates and habilitation candidates

Application documents:

- Application form
- Curriculum vitae
- Exposé including timetable, index and bibliography
- A written assurance, by a professor of the Viadrina, concerning the scientific tie of the applicant to the EUV
- A report from the PhD/habil. academic advisor (Evaluation of the academic accomplishments of the applicant and estimation of the effects the scholarship would have on the result of the qualification purpose, confirmation that the qualification purpose will be completed during the requested time period [Scholarship time period]) Note: Since the scholarships will be evaluated with regard to their effectiveness, a final report is required after the scholarship has expired. If the qualification has not been completed during the scholarship period, a justifying assessment by the academic advisor must also be submitted.

- Certificate of completed university degree and, if existing, a certificate of the completed doctorate
- Suitable demonstration of the personal income during the requested scholarship time period (salary certificate, Scholarships). Your income can be attested by last year's tax assessment. If your current financial situation is different from that, please attest your instantaneous financial situation.

Application Deadline:

20th of February 2023

Please send your application (1 PDF, max. 2 MB) via e-mail to familie@europa-uni.de. Please indicate "Abschlussstipendium" in the subject line. The application must be received by the family service by 20th of February 2023. The report from the academic advisor can be submitted separately.

The selection of the scholars will be discussed by the commission for awarding funds in the realm of research and junior scientists at the Europa-Universität Viadrina.

For more information, please look up the guideline for awarding Bridging Scholarship for people with family tasks and Graduations-Scholarship for women (Brückenstipendien bei Familienaufgaben und Abschlussstipendien für Frauen), by following this link: www.europa-uni.de/familie

For further information, contact the family service:

Nadine Arnold, Family Service Coordinator
0335 5534 2568

Ronja Kroll, Employee
0335 5534 4221

familie@europa-uni.de

Frankfurt (Oder), 19th of January 2023