Personal Invitation to the Unconference:

Internet and Human Rights in Theory and Practice

The Centre for Internet and Human Rights and the project European New School of Digital Studies would like to invite you to our event:

Internet and Human Rights in Theory and Practice

"an academic `Butterfahrt' "

October, 25 2019

@Viadrina in Frankfurt (Oder)

10 a.m - 5 p.m.

Our Goals for the unconference:

We want to bring together scientists and practitioners in the field to enhance transdisciplinary collaboration and enable a change of perspectives. To make sure the day benefits all of us we aim at creating concrete output during the day lead by the following questions:

- Re(de)fine theoretical foundations for human rights in the digital age: Are human rights moral or political/legal rights? Do we need new human rights in the digital age? Which human rights treaties need refinement?

- Practical implications for human rights work in the digital age: Which chances/challenges bears the internet for human rights work? Which one is the most urgent topic/aspect in need to be changed now?

What we need from you:

Instead of having classical presentations we would like to ask all participants to

- send us three hashtags that describe your main interests in the field of human rights until 20.10.2019,
- prepare a Pecha-Kucha (10x20) to present yourself and your experience/access to the field of internet and human rights according to the following rules:
  - prepare a presentation with 10 (not 20) slides, every slide contains one picture (no text). For every picture you have 20 second, if you need help you find an instruction here: https://www.wabisabilearning.com/blog/how-to-make-great-presentations-with-pecha-kucha
  - please send us the presentation by 24.10. 19 10 a.m.

As we are sending out limited invitations to selected participants we would kindly ask you to let us know as soon as possible (latest until Sept. 15th 2019) whether you'd like to participate.

For any further questions please contact us at dinar@chir.eu or lwalter@europa-uni.de

Looking forward to a vivid discussion and seeing you in Frankfurt,

Linda Walter (Viadrina), Jürgen Neyer (ENS/Viadrina/CIHR) and Christina Dinar (CIHR)
