Institution:

I agree to the following rules:

The university must be informed about the submission of an application for getting of the financial help according to the Federal Training Assistance Act (BAföG). The competent Office of Student Aid is entitled to provide the European University Viadrina with information on the funding period and the amount of financial support. The same applies to other institutions that award scholarships from Central and Eastern Europe.

Significant changes in the economic situation during the eligible funding period (including changes of your own income) must be reported to the scholarship office.

In case of presence of some ambiguities on the income situation of the student the European University Viadrina can direct specific inquiries to the tax authorities.

The above information has been made to the best of my knowledge and belief. False information can lead to the repayment of the scholarship and criminal liability.

I undertake to inform you immediately about any change regarding the above information in written form.
